

CHRISSIE LLOYD, ARAS

For several years in my 20's I enjoyed oil painting. Then in 1990 I went back to art working in watercolour, mixed media and acrylic. I studied with Pamela Fairburn, a noted Sydney watercolourist and also with the late Arthur James, an artist of international repute in life drawing. For six years I studied portraiture both in oils and charcoal with renowned portrait artist Yve Close.

I also enjoyed life drawing and sculpture with Alan Somerville for four years. I have attended many workshops and tutorials with well known Australian & New Zealand artists including Bernhardine Mueller (master printmaker) and Patrick Carroll (multi-award winning Australian landscape artist) whose approach in both the physical and spiritual sense has influenced my use of acrylic and the way I "feel and see" the landscape. No matter how widely I travel, the Australian landscape has my heart.

I exhibit at Humble House Gallery in Canberra; at ME Artspace in St Leonards; at the Royal Easter Show; previously through Judith Salmon of Salmon Galleries in North Sydney; at art societies of which I am a member and at other exhibitions in which I am invited to participate including the Hunters Hill Art Exhibition. I have been invited to both speak and do demonstrations for Art Societies and for five years I was an invited judge for the Eve Vonwiller Youth Art Prize.

Commissioned works currently hang in private collections in Australia, the UK, USA and New Zealand. Recently three of my landscapes were purchased to be hung in the US Embassy in Canberra.

I was honoured to be invited to represent Australia at the 2024 10th Goeje International Art Festival at the Haegeumgang Theme Museum in South Korea. My paintings are now in the Museum's collection. Having achieved the Award for Excellence, I was then invited to present a solo exhibition.
